

TEXAS STYLIST

Sign Up Today
for Your FREE Online
Digital Newspaper
www.texasstylist.com

Colour My World
How to Be Your
Clients' Dream Colorist

Texas Dept. of Licensing Cosmetology News

Mistakes That May Cost You Color Clients

Three Rules To Pricing Color Services

Instagram: A Crash Course for Small Businesses

In Defense of Beauty Schools

Top Ten Reasons
Great Employees Quit

Calendar of Shows and Events

For the Salon Owner and Beauty Professional Only

Cover Photo Courtesy of Keune Haircosmetics North America

“Love Is In the Hair” Fundraiser at Melody Edens Salon

San Antonio Salon Supports American Heart Association

San Antonio's Melody Edens Salon celebrated beauty for a cause on Feb. 7, 2017 by hosting their “Love Is In The Hair” fundraiser, in support of the American Heart Association.

Guests and media gathered at the trend-setting salon for a fun reception plus salon team seasonal fashion updates in cut, color and cosmetics (plus image consultations, makeup touch-ups, and complimentary beauty gifts). The evening's live-model presentation featured beautiful red dresses (from Macy's) in support of National Wear Red Day, and showing head-to-toe finished fashion looks, inspired by the runways of New York Fashion Week to L.A.'s celebrity red carpet.

The Melody Edens Salon design team who hosted “Love Is In The Hair” were, left to right: Ariana Ovalle, Grace Elmer and Melody Edens.

Presenting on behalf of the salon were owner Melody Edens, Ariana Ovalle and Grace Elmer.

Featured products included the salon's own signature line of haircare/styling and make-up products. The Melody Edens Salon is “San Antonio's Only American Board of Certified Haircolorists' Salon” (ABCH), whose total hair design team is uniquely and nationally recognized for their fashion-forward creativity, techniques and skills in hair cutting/styling and coloring.

For more information visit www.melodyedenssalon.com or call 210-734-3556.

Models with Swain Edens, husband of Melody and co-owner of Melody Edens Salon at “Love Is In The Hair” trend event supporting the American Heart Association.